Twelve experts from the world of finance and religion and a stand-up comedian are questioned on the moral and ethical issues that affect how much we earn, how we are taxed, how we invest and how we lend and borrow money.

The questions include

- Can someone earn too much money?
- What are ethical investments?
- When does interest become usury?
- What is a moral or ethical taxation system?
- Are tax havens moral?
- Should there be rules that reflect a moral position towards money?
- Is it ethical to charge interest on loans to the developing world?
- What are the moral implications of inheriting wealth?

money & morality VIDEO PACK

Money & Morality is designed to provide a challenging resource for the students to consider and reconsider their attitudes towards money. It looks at the moral and ethical implications of how wealth is acquired, what it represents and how it reflects the society we live in.

Money & Morality is presented as 24 questions in 6 units:

- what we earn
- the taxes we pay
- the investments we make
- lending and borrowing money
- controlling money – guidelines and rules

Each question forms its own unit with linked photocopiable activity sheets. The activities encourage students to listen and understand a range of views.

Money & Morality is designed to engage students with a range of abilities. The video has been designed for easy and flexible use in the classroom. An in-vision index allows for the easy selection and ordering of questions suitable for the specific needs of any class.

DVD/VHS content: 24 questions of 3–5 minute duration
Activity sheets: 30 printable pages on DVD, 30 printed pages with VHS
Suitability: Key Stage 4/5
Price: DVD £29.99 ex Vat, VHS £38.00 ex Vat (VHS available while stocks last)
